

Class 4 Weekly News

This week, our English and PHSE have been linked to Anti-Bullying Week and we carried out a number of practical activities in order to understand the impact of bullying on individuals (see below). In our Reading, we have used our VIPER inference skills to understand a variety of quotations from our vehicle text 'Wonder', which has the central theme of diversity, before coming up with our own Anti-bullying quotes (see below, and on the main school newsletter). As a teacher, reading these quotes, written by 9-11 year old children, fills me with pride. What wonderful empathy, respect and awareness our oldest pupils at St Lawrence have shown this week. Extremely well done Class 4.

Be happy; be kind. (Reuben)

No matter who you are or what you do, you should still be applauded for you being you. (Oliver)

No one blends in. We are all born to stand out and be unique.. (Keira)

Just ignore what people say or do. They just aren't on the same path as you. (Ciaran)

Ignore what people say; they just aren't looking in the right place. (Lola)

Being bullied and having nasty things said to you must be like having a scar on your skin: it heals but never really goes away. (Ciaran)

Everybody is abnormal: we are all different. (Olly M)
