

Class 4 Weekly News

This week, following our fantastic author visit (see more details in the main newsletter), we continued to practise our quote writing skills using inspiration from Sarah, and focusing on our love of reading. I'm sure you will agree, we have some extremely gifted writers in Class 4. Well done Year 5 and 6!

A book is like a black hole: you open it and it sucks you into another world!
(Abi)

Whenever you read, you learn without knowing!
(Graciella and Ella)

Each time you flick a page, you go into a new land to explore!
(Sophie)

Don't moan how long the book is because you don't know how far you'll go!
Darcey)

Opening a book is like opening a door to a world of your imagination!
(Logan)

Picking up a book is like picking up a whole new land
(Keira)

Books are like hocus pocus: they cast a spell on your mind!
(Missy)

A book is like a free ticket to paradise!
(Jessica)

A book is a free plane ride to another world!
(Olly F)

Opening a book is like entering a magical world!
(Angelica)

Reading a book is like opening unopened doors to new adventures!
(Lizzie)

Reading is like going into a magical world...with no other people!
(Arianna)

Opening a Marvel comic is like swinging into a magic portal like Spiderman.
(Ciaran)

Reading unlocks the key to your own imagination!
(Charlie and Lola)