

Class 2

In History this half term, we are looking at significant individuals who have changed our world. We have focused on Rosa Parks and her contributions to abolishing segregation in America. We started the week creating fact file posters.

We've also sequenced the life and achievements of Rosa Parks, also discussing which parts of her life influenced our world today.

We've also looked at important vocabulary and their definitions.