

Class 3 Weekly News

Class 3 Weekly News

This week, Class 3 have written their biographies on Mary Seacole. They have worked hard to include all of the facts that they have learnt and structure their work in the correct way. Well done Class 3!

Mary Seacole's Extraordinary And Brave Life

The Amazing Women

Mary was born ~~create~~ her mother was a nurse. Mary was lucky to not be a slave because of her skin colour. She was lucky because she could do different things.

Mary's Early Life

Mary was born in 1805 in Jamaica, Kingston. Mary's mother was black and her father called James Grant was white. Her mother was born in Jamaica and her father was born in Scotland. Mary's mother was a nurse and owned a hotel. She taught Mary how to make medicines out of herbs, plants and spices. Her mother taught her herbal remedies. Mary practiced medicine ~~over~~ on her dolls and pets.

Did you know?
Herbal remedies are making medicines made of herbs, plants and spices.

Travelled before the Crimea

Mary was an amazing traveller she

Mary Seacole's Great Adventures

Born 1805 in Jamaica. Mary Seacole was a ~~great~~ <sup>nurse</sup> ~~Scottish~~ <sup>Jamaican</sup> and her mother was Jamaican.

Did you know?
Mary Seacole's mother's name is unknown.

<sup>Nursing</sup> Mary Seacole got her nursing skills from her mother. Mary practised on her dolls and pets, her mother also made a boarding house to help kids and adults.

<sup>Travel</sup> When her mother Mary Seacole died she also got braver in 1845. Mary was brave enough to get a ticket on a boat but got rejected because of her skin, then got on another boat to London.

<sup>War</sup> Mary went to <sup>Crimea</sup> Crimea and built a hotel called the British hotel because it helps starving and wounded people. Mary was only 2 hours away.

Did you know?
Mary's British hotel was not sold after the war!
<sup>3 years</sup> The war lasted 3 years. Mary & Seacole became poor.
<sup>Met in war</sup> Mary met William Russell in the war and after the war met him again.