

Class 2

This week has been another busy week in Class 2!

We've taken part in our transition sessions, drawn the characters from our written stories in English and written acrostic weather poems.

Here are a couple of examples.

Friday has also seen our exciting class trip too!

