

Class 2

This week, in Class 2 we've been scientists looking at our new unit on Materials. We discussed new vocabulary that will be important for our topic. Part of learning was identifying the properties of the materials used in making various objects.

The play do is opaque—you can't see through it.

