Class 3 Weekly News

What a fantastic first week back in Class 3! Children have shown enthusiasm and eagerness to learn which has been lovely to see.

We had an exciting start to the week where children were immersed into their new class text...

Clues were given about the book and children used this to decide what they might mean. Then, they mysteriously appeared in the quiet garden which left children feeling excited, puzzled and curious...

Next week, they will discover even more!
