

Class 1

What a fantastic penultimate week of term it has been. We are certainly all in the Christmas spirit and the children really enjoyed watching the pantomime on Thursday and of course performing their nativity today. In phonics our focus sound has been 'l' and we have practised our red words. In maths we have been exploring the number 5.

