Class 4 Weekly News
This week, we finished our local geography unit where we have learnt more about the geographical features of Shrewsbury, Telford and Preston upon the Weald Moors itself. We finished our maps of the local area, using recognised map symbols, following on from our trip around the village last week.