

Class 3 Weekly News

This week Class 3 have planned their own lost narratives and began writing using the techniques they have learnt to show fear. In maths, Class 3 have continued to work on the topic of Money and have been using money to play games involving adding and subtracting money and giving change.

In science, we have looked at the conditions that plants need to grow and have planned an investigation.

